About the Company

At St Francis Herb Farm, our Certified Organic Farm adheres to strict organic principles to cultivate the highest quality herbs for use in our Plant Medicine production. We work hand in glove with nature to understand, nurture, and extract the healing compounds to be found in the plant world. We are multigenerational herbal artisans who have spent 35+ years researching and cultivating our knowledge and trade.

Manufactured in Canada's largest dedicated plant medicine facility, our herbal products can be found on store shelves and in Naturopathic Doctors' offices across Canada and beyond. We craft liquid and powdered extracts, creams, salves, and syrups to help Canadians on their wellness journey.
